

Culture and Engagement committee member Tony Williams is co-chairing this year's 918 Day Festival. Join the party at Chapman Green from 5-9 p.m.

EVENTS

- September 10: The Beat is the History Workshop, Pt. 1; 6:30-8:30 p.m. (Martin Library)
 - September 11: The Beat is the History Workshop, Pt.2; 6:30-8:30 p.m. (Rudisill Library)
 - September 12: Through the Lens of Women: Afro-Indigenous Intersections, Past and Present; 5:15 p.m. (John Hope Franklin Center)
 - September 13-14: An evening with Actor, Tim Reid; 8 p.m. (Tulsa Performing Arts Center)
 - September 18: 918 Day Festival ; 5-9 p.m. (Chapman Green)
 - September 19: Let's Talk About It Discussion, 5-7 p.m. (Rudisill Library)
 - September 28: Birthright Living Legacy Park Crawl for Dads; 1-3 p.m. (Whiteside Park Community Center)
 - September 28: VERSES Community Showcase; 6 p.m. (Central Library)
- Click here for more community events.

COMMITTEE UPDATES

POLICY

The Policy Recommendations Committee is preparing their focuses for the year. Those focuses include:

- Kirkpatrick Heights and the local community team seeking a structure;
- Identifying health initiatives and pinpointing ways to support and elevate what's already being done in the community;
- and Financial literacy, especially as it related to connecting to wealth creation and housing opportunities.

CULTURE

The Culture and Engagement Committee will share out newsletter each month by the 10th, moving forward. Focuses for the group include:

- Growing the "Go Green for Greenwood" initiative;
- Reaching out to community members in the culture & arts sector to learn more about the work the organization are doing in the community;
- Organizing their first annual event - a spoken word contest;
- and Pushing to have Joyce Williams as the Humanitarian of the Year.

EDUCATION

The Education and Skill Building Committee are working with the Rudisill Library to offer computer skills classes to anyone who needs them. In September, the dates are

- 9/21: Internet at the Library; 10-11 a.m.
- 9/25: Devices Basics; 5:30-6:30 p.m.

In addition, the committee will be inviting Dr. Ebony Johnson to the November 12th meeting to update the public on the work she's doing in TPS.

HRC

The Human Rights Commission has worked to create operational processes for Tulsa citizens to report city or community complaints. The city has four sectors that citizens can file a complaint for: Housing Discrimination, ADA Grievances, Contract Discrimination, and Public Accommodations.

To access that form, click here.

Maybelle Wallace, long time member of GTAAAC and leader in the community, was honored this summer as a part of a mural featuring Greenwood residents who've contributed greatly. Ms. Wallace appears on the Southwest Wall for her work with Theater North.

African American Resource Center

Black History Saturdays

City of Tulsa

